

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

CONFERENCE REPORT:

The Conference was held in Strasbourg, France, from 28 September to 3 October 1981. It was the first of a series of conferences organized by the Council of Europe to deal with the protection of personal data. The Conference was attended by representatives of 21 countries and the Commission of the European Communities.

The Conference was opened by the Council of Europe Secretary General, Mr. Robert Badinter, who stressed the importance of the protection of personal data in a democratic society. He also pointed out that the Conference was a landmark event in the history of the Council of Europe, as it was the first time that the Council had organized a conference on a subject of such importance.

The Conference was held in a very pleasant atmosphere and was a success in many respects. It was a very productive meeting and many important decisions were taken. The Conference was a landmark event in the history of the Council of Europe, as it was the first time that the Council had organized a conference on a subject of such importance. The Conference was a very successful one and many important decisions were taken.
