

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS

CONSTITUTION
ARTICLE 1. The Organization shall have as its objective the promotion and protection of the rights of migrant workers and their families, and shall be guided by the following principles:

1. The rights of migrant workers and their families shall be based on the principles of equality, non-discrimination, and respect for human dignity. The Organization shall ensure that migrant workers and their families are treated with the same respect and dignity as the citizens of the host country.

2. The Organization shall cooperate with the States, the International Labour Organization, and other international organizations, as well as with migrant workers and their families, to promote and protect their rights.

3. The Organization shall provide technical assistance and advice to States, migrant workers, and their families, to improve their living and working conditions.

4. The Organization shall maintain a fund to assist States, migrant workers, and their families, in the implementation of the Convention.
