UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC
SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION
BACHELOR OF EDUCATION
TEACHING MAJOR
COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the teaching profession. It covers the theoretical foundations of education, the role of the teacher, and the practical aspects of classroom management and instruction. The course is structured to allow students to develop their own teaching style and to gain experience in the classroom through practical placements.

The course is divided into several modules, each focusing on a different aspect of the teaching profession. The modules are designed to be both challenging and rewarding, providing students with the opportunity to explore their own interests and to develop their own teaching style. The course is also designed to be flexible, allowing students to complete the program at their own pace and to take breaks when needed.

Students who complete this course will be well-prepared to enter the teaching profession. They will have a strong understanding of the theoretical foundations of education, the role of the teacher, and the practical aspects of classroom management and instruction. They will also have gained valuable experience in the classroom through practical placements.
