

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION DEGREE PROGRAM FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING SEMESTER 1 2023

Students are advised that this course is designed to provide a comprehensive understanding of financial accounting principles and practices. It covers the preparation and interpretation of financial statements, including the balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement. The course also emphasizes the importance of accurate record-keeping and the role of accounting in business decision-making.

This course is a core requirement for the Bachelor of Business Administration degree program. It is designed to equip students with the necessary skills and knowledge to analyze financial data and prepare financial statements. The course is taught through a combination of lectures, seminars, and practical exercises.

Students are expected to have a basic understanding of business operations and accounting terminology. The course is structured to build on this foundation, providing a detailed look at the accounting cycle, journal entries, and the preparation of financial statements. Students will also learn how to interpret these statements and use them to make informed business decisions.

The course is delivered through a mix of online and face-to-face learning. Students will have access to a range of resources, including lecture notes, video recordings, and interactive exercises. Regular assessments and assignments will be used to monitor progress and ensure that students are meeting the learning objectives. The course is designed to be challenging and engaging, providing a solid foundation for further study in business accounting.

Students are encouraged to participate actively in the learning process and to seek help when needed. The course is designed to be a collaborative learning experience, with students encouraged to work together and share their knowledge. The course is a key component of the business degree program and is essential for students who wish to pursue a career in business accounting or finance.
