

REPUBLIC OF CHINA
MINISTRY OF NATIONAL DEFENSE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
GENERAL STAFF

SECRET
Reference: The Ministry of National Defense has received information that the People's Republic of China has recently conducted a series of military exercises in the Taiwan Strait area. These exercises are considered to be a significant escalation of military activities and are a clear violation of the peaceful resolution of the Taiwan issue. The Ministry of National Defense is deeply concerned about the impact of these exercises on the stability of the region and the safety of the Republic of China. It is requested that you provide detailed information on the nature and scale of these exercises, as well as any other relevant intelligence that may be available.

The Ministry of National Defense is currently monitoring the situation closely and will take appropriate measures to respond to any further developments. Your cooperation in this matter is highly appreciated.

Please provide your report as soon as possible. If you have any questions or need further information, please contact the relevant departments of the Ministry of National Defense.

Very truly yours,
Secretary of the General Staff

Enclosure: A copy of the intelligence report is being provided to the relevant departments for their reference and action. The Ministry of National Defense will continue to maintain close contact with you regarding this matter.
