THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC
SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION
BACHELOR OF EDUCATION
TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM
COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the educational system in the Pacific region. It covers the history, philosophy, and practice of education, as well as the role of the teacher in a multicultural and multilingual context. The course is divided into several modules, each focusing on a different aspect of education. The first module introduces the student to the Pacific region and its diverse cultures. The second module explores the history and development of education in the Pacific. The third module focuses on the philosophy of education and the role of the teacher. The fourth module examines the practice of education in the Pacific, including curriculum development, assessment, and classroom management. The fifth module discusses the challenges and opportunities of education in the Pacific. The course concludes with a final project where students apply their knowledge and skills to a real-world educational situation.
