

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The International Conference on the History of the Middle East is a unique opportunity for scholars from around the world to discuss the latest research on the region. The conference will focus on the political, social, and economic changes that have shaped the Middle East in the last century. The topics to be discussed include the impact of the oil crisis, the role of the United States, and the challenges of modernization. The conference will be held in a beautiful location and will feature a variety of activities, including lectures, panel discussions, and a social program. The conference is open to all who are interested in the history of the Middle East. Registration is now open and the deadline for abstracts is approaching. For more information, please contact the conference organizers.
