

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AND PEOPLE'S PARTICIPATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT

The International Conference on Sustainable Development and People's Participation and Local Government is organized by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in cooperation with the Government of the Philippines and the Philippine Local Government Union (PLGU). The conference is held in Manila, Philippines, from 15 to 19 June 1992.

The conference is a major event in the series of activities organized by UNDP in support of the Philippine Local Government Union (PLGU) in its efforts to strengthen local government institutions and improve the quality of local government services.

The conference is a major event in the series of activities organized by UNDP in support of the Philippine Local Government Union (PLGU) in its efforts to strengthen local government institutions and improve the quality of local government services. The conference is held in Manila, Philippines, from 15 to 19 June 1992. The conference is a major event in the series of activities organized by UNDP in support of the Philippine Local Government Union (PLGU) in its efforts to strengthen local government institutions and improve the quality of local government services. The conference is held in Manila, Philippines, from 15 to 19 June 1992.

The conference is a major event in the series of activities organized by UNDP in support of the Philippine Local Government Union (PLGU) in its efforts to strengthen local government institutions and improve the quality of local government services. The conference is held in Manila, Philippines, from 15 to 19 June 1992. The conference is a major event in the series of activities organized by UNDP in support of the Philippine Local Government Union (PLGU) in its efforts to strengthen local government institutions and improve the quality of local government services. The conference is held in Manila, Philippines, from 15 to 19 June 1992.

