

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

CONFERENCE REPORT: The International Conference on the Protection of Personal Data, held in Brussels, Belgium, from 28 August to 3 September 1980, was the first of a series of conferences organized by the Council of Europe to deal with the protection of personal data. The conference was attended by representatives of 25 countries and the Commission of the European Communities. The main theme of the conference was the protection of personal data in the context of the European Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data (Convention 108).

The conference was organized by the Council of Europe, the Commission of the European Communities, and the Government of Belgium. The conference was held in Brussels, Belgium, from 28 August to 3 September 1980. The conference was attended by representatives of 25 countries and the Commission of the European Communities. The main theme of the conference was the protection of personal data in the context of the European Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data (Convention 108).

The conference was organized by the Council of Europe, the Commission of the European Communities, and the Government of Belgium. The conference was held in Brussels, Belgium, from 28 August to 3 September 1980. The conference was attended by representatives of 25 countries and the Commission of the European Communities. The main theme of the conference was the protection of personal data in the context of the European Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data (Convention 108).

The conference was organized by the Council of Europe, the Commission of the European Communities, and the Government of Belgium. The conference was held in Brussels, Belgium, from 28 August to 3 September 1980. The conference was attended by representatives of 25 countries and the Commission of the European Communities. The main theme of the conference was the protection of personal data in the context of the European Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data (Convention 108).

The conference was organized by the Council of Europe, the Commission of the European Communities, and the Government of Belgium. The conference was held in Brussels, Belgium, from 28 August to 3 September 1980. The conference was attended by representatives of 25 countries and the Commission of the European Communities. The main theme of the conference was the protection of personal data in the context of the European Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data (Convention 108).

The conference was organized by the Council of Europe, the Commission of the European Communities, and the Government of Belgium. The conference was held in Brussels, Belgium, from 28 August to 3 September 1980. The conference was attended by representatives of 25 countries and the Commission of the European Communities. The main theme of the conference was the protection of personal data in the context of the European Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data (Convention 108).