

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The International Conference on the History of the Middle East (ICME) is a biennial conference that brings together scholars from around the world to discuss the history of the Middle East. The conference is organized by the Middle East Studies Association (MESA) and the American Historical Association (AHA). The conference is held in a different location each year. The conference is a major event in the field of Middle East studies and is attended by hundreds of scholars and students. The conference is a great opportunity for scholars to present their research and to discuss it with other scholars in the field. The conference is also a great opportunity for students to attend lectures and to meet with other scholars in the field.

The conference is a great opportunity for scholars to present their research and to discuss it with other scholars in the field. The conference is also a great opportunity for students to attend lectures and to meet with other scholars in the field. The conference is a major event in the field of Middle East studies and is attended by hundreds of scholars and students. The conference is a great opportunity for scholars to present their research and to discuss it with other scholars in the field. The conference is also a great opportunity for students to attend lectures and to meet with other scholars in the field.