

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK STATE BAR EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED: 1. The following facts are taken from a case reported in the New York Law Journal. Read the facts carefully and answer the questions that follow.

On January 1, 1980, the State of New York enacted a law which provided that the State Bar of New York should be organized and should have the right to regulate the practice of law in the State. The law provided that the State Bar should be organized by the State Bar Association and should have the right to regulate the practice of law in the State. The law provided that the State Bar should have the right to regulate the practice of law in the State.

The State Bar of New York was organized on January 1, 1980. The State Bar of New York has the right to regulate the practice of law in the State. The State Bar of New York has the right to regulate the practice of law in the State. The State Bar of New York has the right to regulate the practice of law in the State. The State Bar of New York has the right to regulate the practice of law in the State.