

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD

CONFERENCE: The International Conference on the History of the World was held in Beijing, China, from 1993 to 1997. It was the largest and most diverse gathering of historians in the world's history. The conference was organized by the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and the Chinese Society for World History. The conference was held in four sessions: the first in Beijing (1993), the second in Beijing (1994), the third in Beijing (1995), and the fourth in Beijing (1997). The conference was a landmark event in the history of international academic cooperation and dialogue.

'International Conference on the History of the World (Beijing, 1993-1997)', 'International Conference on the History of the World (Beijing, 1994-1995)', 'International Conference on the History of the World (Beijing, 1995-1997)'. The conference was a landmark event in the history of international academic cooperation and dialogue.

The International Conference on the History of the World was held in Beijing, China, from 1993 to 1997. It was the largest and most diverse gathering of historians in the world's history.

The conference was a landmark event in the history of international academic cooperation and dialogue. It was the largest and most diverse gathering of historians in the world's history.

The International Conference on the History of the World was held in Beijing, China, from 1993 to 1997. It was the largest and most diverse gathering of historians in the world's history.

The International Conference on the History of the World was held in Beijing, China, from 1993 to 1997. It was the largest and most diverse gathering of historians in the world's history. The conference was a landmark event in the history of international academic cooperation and dialogue.

