

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND GROWTH

CONFERENCE PROGRAM:

The conference will be held in a grand hotel in the heart of the city. The program is designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the current economic situation and to discuss strategies for recovery and growth. The conference will feature a series of plenary sessions, panel discussions, and roundtable debates. The topics to be discussed include the impact of the global financial crisis, the role of government in economic recovery, and the challenges facing emerging and developing economies. The conference will also include a series of workshops and seminars for business leaders and policymakers. The conference is open to all interested parties, and registration is free of charge. The conference will be held in English, and there will be simultaneous interpretation in Chinese, Japanese, and Spanish. The conference is organized by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) and the World Economic Forum (WEF). The conference is a unique opportunity for business leaders and policymakers to share their views and experiences and to discuss strategies for recovery and growth. The conference is a must-attend event for anyone interested in the current economic situation and the future of the world economy.
