

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC
SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION
STUDENT INFORMATION SHEET

This sheet provides information on the application process for the University of the South Pacific School of Distance Education. It is intended for prospective students who are interested in enrolling in a distance education program.

The University of the South Pacific is a leading institution of higher learning in the Pacific region. It offers a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate programs through its School of Distance Education. The School is committed to providing quality education and support to its students, ensuring that they can successfully complete their studies despite geographical distance. Prospective students should carefully review the application requirements and procedures outlined in this sheet. The application process typically involves submitting an application form, supporting documents, and paying a fee. Successful applicants will be invited to attend an orientation program and begin their studies. For more information, please contact the School of Distance Education or visit the University's website.

For further information, please contact the School of Distance Education at the University of the South Pacific. The contact details are provided on the back of this sheet. We welcome inquiries from prospective students and will be happy to assist you in your application process.

The University of the South Pacific is a member of the Association of Pacific Rim Universities (APRU). This membership ensures that our students have access to a global network of universities and research institutions. We are committed to providing a high-quality education that prepares our graduates for the challenges of the 21st century. The School of Distance Education is proud to offer a flexible and accessible learning environment that allows students to balance their studies with their work and personal commitments. We look forward to welcoming you to the University of the South Pacific and supporting you throughout your academic journey.